I am sometimes asked, what is a bear doing on the page? The Bear is here for light-hearted fun, its the old times image of the Burley Truck Driver (sometimes with a big spanner in his hand when his cab door is opened (from the outside)) who you don't want to upset, of course it can be true today, whatever! The Bear is essentially the icon of the very often Yesteryear (cud b today) Truck Driver, I know all you drivers know this, but office types who sit amongst potted plants and electric kettles are not always so aware, God bless them!

THIS IS THE A & B ROAD LIST FOR LORRY PARKS, TRUCK STOPS, TRANSPORT CAFES STARTS WHICH STARTS BELOW HERE WITH THE A1. (see also the on and near motorways list page. Link near top and also bottom of this page).

This is a extra Link to the Pit Stop Transport Cafe Lorry Park Truck Stop in Bromsgrove Birmingham.

AI(M) ... Jayne' s Place - A614 Blyth (Notts) It is located just where the AI(M) ends at Blyth (Notts). Take the first exit left off the A1(M) roundabout onto the A614. The Cafe is just half a mile down the road.
Recently refurbished but the overnight parking restrictions you mention do apply. I have called in and know local workmen use it well and give it good marks. ... I've seen Truckers park up in the Blyth Moto Services which are on the roundabout at the end of the A1(M) and walk down the road to this cafe. (Can understand why - like many Moto Services, Blyth is well overdue for refurbishment - small, cramped, scruffy and most of the security/street lighting no longer works) Don't know closing time at Transport Cafe but think it may be around 7pm. ..
Cheers again. Information from Ken, now retired,, Thanks Ken & Davey of Hours Guard for the initial reporting of good food here. .. Jayne's Place is 600 yards up the A614 from the A1 roundabout on the left just before the national speed limit. Good food and not expensive, with a reasonable size parking area, all of it tarmac.. Info from Dave Roberts

AS you leave the A2 cafe on right, HGV Park on left, keep swinging around left. BETTER STILL use our Transport Cafe points of interest Sat Nav download, this will take you to 100% exact entrance of HGV Park. I did the donkeywork for you chaps to make your life that bit easier! pints and a £5 meal voucher,, or you can have a £10 park with 2 pints voucher only. Shower available in the yard. The pub offers food, showers and of course liquid beverage for the tired trucker. There are also rooms available for the more affluent amongst us. There is big screen tv and a pool table. The best thing is the overnight parking charge of five pounds, which includes two free pints of beer. Where else can you get that in the UK. Regards, Big Bry. A40..A449..between Monmouth and Ross-on-Wye, Junction with A4137 The Highway Star This Transport Cafe operation is marked for WVM parking but an HGV may well find a slot on the side,,, outside of the tourist season it should be easy to park an HGV as I found it. It does seem well patronised by locals and WVM which is a good sign. You can find it on the sat nav poi files we have on this website. The Highway Star is its name,, the staff seem good and the food the same,, however food order hours of business are only 08.00hrs to 14.30hrs 7 days, it actually closes at 15.00hrs each day. Give them a ring on 07847 757 647. You should enjoy this stop! Its located on the north east bound side but access is over the bridge if south east bound. Its about 500yards north east of the Symonds Yat services area,,, For old time drivers of this road, there used to be a Transport Cafe on the other side by this bridge. If I recall a Scania Depot is now near where it used to be... none of you can be that old? I think The highway Star is where a little Chef once was upon a time!!!! ,,,,,,,,,,,,,, what goes around comes around,,,,,,,,, life goes on.

It's located North of Kilmarnock on the A77 northbound at Fenwick Motors. There's room to park 5 or 6 wagons at least and once the M77 is finished it will be the last stop before the dreaded motorway services. Typical snackbar fare, rolls(sausage, bacon, etc) breakfasts etc. There are tables & chairs outside in the summer (sometimes, remember it's Scotland.....) The food is top class, it's the only snackbar i'd eat bacon out of around here as it's REALLY bacon not the crap most snackbars call bacon! Hours are 7.30-2.00 just now as they don't open as long due to the upheaval of the motorway construction.

Access is a bit difficult at times due to the roadworks but worth it if you want to eat something that won't have you off work for the next couple of days! Realistically, if you travel the A77 regularly you'll know it anyway as it's the only one in the area and most of it's custom is regulars like myself. Cheers Logan.

A638 - - DEWSBURY 12 LORRY ONLY PARK EASY TO FIND Sands Lane, Dewsbury, Kirklees, West Yorkshire, WF12. CREDITS TO VIC FOR ALL THIS INFORMATION.-- -- I have noticed you have the defunct listing for the Dewsbury cafe but no listing for the free lorry park in Dewsbury. Though small holding about 12 vehicles it may not be known to some. No facility on site but a 24hr Sainsburys is just a stones throw away. Just head for the town centre and pick up the signs. Dewsbury's small so no matter which way you go just turn onto the road opposite the bus station First left off of there first right. You will have to buzz the gate for entry and exit. Vic

A862-A96-A9-A82 INVERNESS Transport Cafe (Truck Stop) Lorry Park (Woodys) Go to the south side of the Kessock Bridge and turn in towards Inverness at the roundabout. Proceed down dual carriageway to the next roundabout where you double back down the other carriageway. HGV drivers note, you will need to indicate right and move over to the left to stop inside lane traffic or your back end will flatten the flowers on the roundabout. hey! its not that bad, just go slow and wait for the usual complete lack of understanding, you know it will happen due to our wonderful car driver driving schools failure to point out that HGV's can require to turn right from the left lane like Dell Boys 3 wheeler with Rodney driving (whoops where are the roadworks?). All right I'll get on with it,, Take the first left at WICKES STORES,, 500yards down the road and Woody is signposted on the right,,, PHEW! Phone 01463 715 119 Food available from 05.45hrs to 21.00hrs mon to Friday. Sat till 16.00hrs and sunday 08.00hrs to 16.00hrs. 24 hour security when cafe is closed CCTV on site
